CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Executive Secretary

National Security Council

SUBJECT : Report on the Status of the Foreign

Intelligence Program as of 30 June 1957

- 1. The attached report has been prepared pursuant to Presidential directive as forwarded to the Director of Central Intelligence by the Executive Secretary, National Security Council, by memorandum dated 16 July 1957. Primary reference has been made to national security policy objectives applicable to the intelligence community, particularly as set forth in NSC 5707/8.
- 2. The report, as requested, follows the general lines of Part 7 of NSC 5611. The attached Annex A cross-references the activities discussed to relevant National Security Council Intelligence Directives.
- 3. The Intelligence Advisory Committee concurred in this report, including Annex A, on 3 September 1957.
